Hello Folks;

Well, I finally got the pupus notarized and it certainly was a lot of trouble getting them signed. Whoever sent them failed to fill them out so all that I can do is sign them and trust that it will be taken care of.

Received your box of cookies & I thought that I was home again. They are delicious, and every time I eat one it makes me feel as if I was back home watching you bake some in your kitchen. You must have spent a considerable amount baking them and I want you to know that I fully appreciate your thoughtfulness not only for the money it cost you but the time you spent in making them.

The life that I am living at the present time can't be beat. I am still a Barracks orderly and it is a very easy job. I get up at five in the morning, eat, and then five other fellows & myself clean the barracks up by eight thirty. The rest of the day we take turns sorting the mail and running errands. If the food was good before it is superb now. I believe it or not am eating at the N.C.O. mess<sup>#1</sup>. Right now I have just finished delivering the# mail to the (Non Commissioned Officers)

Different mess halls.

Expect to look Sgt. Joe McCarthy up some time today. It is pretty hard to find any body here because most of the fellows keep getting transferred. Would like to meet him because he could probably give <sup>me</sup> the information that I want.

Sorry that I didn't write sooner but I was just like the rest of the fellows. On my first few days of base liberty I wandered all over the base. Have seen all that can be seen and it really is a beautiful base. It has the distinction of being the finest training center in the United States.

Will send you the pictures in my next letter. Am going ashore tomorrow and hope to have a picture taken and then maybe you folks will be a little happier.

When I finish this I am going to get a haircut, you know I want to look nice for my picture. Wish all of you could be here to enjoy the sunshine here in this beautiful country. Hoping that this letter finds all of you in the best of health. I give all of you my love

So Long
George.
